

Since Hariyali Teej falls on 15 August 2026, one of the most common questions regarding it is, "What should I wear on Hariyali Teej?" The answer to this question is "a green saree." We all know that this occasion falls during the month of Saavan, and that is the reason why the colour is associated with Teej, because it symbolizes greenery. Teej marks the day Goddess Parvati was reunited with Lord Shiva after her unwavering devotion.

If you are looking for Teej outfit ideas, Eksutram provides you with options for an outfit that is both stylish and comfortable.

Why Green Is Worn On Hariyali Teej

"Hariyali" means greenery, and the monsoon season comes during the Hariyali Teej celebration, and hence, nature gets greener after the rains. Therefore, green clothes are worn on Hariyali Teej. The embroidered green saree on Hariyali Teej symbolizes this tradition by adding an elegant festive touch to your attire. Women who want to wear light clothes should opt for green Chikankari Kurtas/Suits in colors such as mehendi, pista, or emerald.

How To Style Your Hariyali Teej Outfit

The beauty of Chikankari lies in its fine embroidery. Styling should complement the outfit instead of drawing attention away from it.

1. Wear Pearls

A simple pair of pearl earrings, a delicate bracelet, and simple bangles lend elegance; still, the main attraction is the handcrafted embroidery.

2. Footwear

Comfortable block heels and embroidered juttis do the rest to add to the festive look and help keep you comfortable during your celebration.

3. Keep Makeup

Combined with the soft eye make-up, the new skin and natural lip color give a well-balanced festive look, which is perfect for both day and night.

4. Style Hair

Traditional hairstyles do not call for elaborate styling, as loose curls or a low bun with fresh flowers complete the look.

Best Fabrics For Hariyali Teej Outfits

Choice of fabric impacts not only the feel but also the look. As Hariyali Teej comes on the onset of the rainy season, fabrics should be lighter.

- Pure Georgette—Flows gracefully, is light in weight, and displays intricate designs of Chikankari embroidery.
- Chanderi Silk – Adds a subtle festive glow but is also comfortable to wear for extended durations of celebration events.
- Organza—This adds shape to your attire and is ideal for those women who prefer their ethnic looks with a modern twist.
- Modal Silk – It is soft, natural, and draping and can be perfect for festive dinners and evening events.

Hartalika Teej Rituals: Morning To Evening Schedule

Creating a beautiful Hariyali Teej look for women is not only about dressing up but also about fasting or following the tradition within the family; learning the steps involved will help you make preparations without stress. So here's how a Hartalika Teej celebration goes.
